7. How to reach the session venue

International flights to Abidjan

Abidjan International Airport or Felix Houphouet-Boigny International Airport is the largest airport in Côte d’Ivoire. It is located in the municipality of Port-Bouet, about 16 kilometres (10 miles) south-east of Abidjan’s city centre, on the edge of the Atlantic Ocean.

There are commercial and international flights out of Abidjan International Airport. Over 20 airliners connect to the two terminals. Several daily flights connect Abidjan with other sub-region capitals and intercontinental flights allow passenger traffic between Côte d’Ivoire, Europe, the Middle East and other continents, directly or with a connection.

Transfer services from Abidjan International Airport

Rapid access to different parts of the Ivorian city from the airport is provided by fast boulevards connected by interchanges (Airport Boulevard, Giscard d’Estaing Boulevard, Bassam Express Lane, De Gaulle Boulevard, Boulevard de la Paix). Numerous hotels are available around the airport: business hotels and residences in Abidjan, and tourist hotels in Grand-Bassam and Assinie.

Taxis are available 24 hours a day at Abidjan International Airport. They are recognizable by their orange colour. They have a meter but any ride can be negotiated with the driver before entering the vehicle. Abidjan is a very large city, and the price and the ride time (15 to 40 minutes) depend on the distance to the destination area and on congestion in the streets. Expect to pay XOF 2,000 to XOF 5,000 for a trip from the airport to Le Plateau city centre or Cocody’s residential area.

Shuttles and buses: The ‘Monbus 6’ bus line operated by SOTRA connects the airport with the Sud Plateau station from 5:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Tickets can be purchased on board the bus and cost XOF 200. Minibus shuttles set up by hotels run between the airport, the city centre and tourist areas.

Several car rental companies offer their services in Côte d’Ivoire. Some have an office in Abidjan International Airport where a car can be picked up 24 hours a day, and others provide the car upon arrival.

Several companies offer a VIP transport service at the airport upon request. A comfortable and air-conditioned car or minibus will drive you safely from the airport to your hotel or residence anywhere in the country.

A UNCCD COP 15 information counter will be set up in the ‘Arrival’ hall of Abidjan International Airport for conference participants. Participants will be presented with a welcome pack which includes maps of the city as well as information brochures on the transport network and facilities.

On registration and departure dates, transfer services organized by the host country will be provided on a commercial basis from Abidjan International Airport. Up-to-date information will be made available on the host country’s COP 15 website.

How to reach the COP 15 venue

The COP 15 venue, Sofitel Abidjan Hotel Ivoire, is located on the edge of the Ebrié lagoon near the city centre and the business district of Abidjan, and close to the tourist sites of Grand-Bassam and Assinie.

It is easily accessible by taxi/shuttle from Abidjan International airport within 30 mins. Approximate driving distance between Abidjan International Airport and Sofitel Abidjan Hotel Ivoire is 22 km.

Lagoon or bus transportation are public transport alternatives that may be used to reach the Sofitel Abidjan Hotel Ivoire.

Shuttle buses from recommended hotels to the conference venue will be provided by the host country government. Further information on their schedule will be made available on the host country COP 15 website: http://unccd-cop15.org.

Local transportation in Abidjan

Taxi

In Abidjan, you will find both ‘metered taxis’ and ‘communal taxis’. The former are regular taxis that will take you to your chosen destination while the latter travel on fixed routes within the same municipality. Almost all areas have their own taxis, recognizable by their colour: blue in Yopougon, green in Adjame and yellow in Cocody. For practical reasons, orange metered taxis are recommended, connecting all destinations. Expect to pay around XOF 2,000 for an average midtown ride.

‘Woro-woros’ (meaning ‘60 francs’ in Malinke language) are collective taxis (where the ride is shared with other passengers) following fixed routes with precise stops. On Abidjan’s main roads, one in five cars is a ‘woro-woro’. They are easily recognizable by their yellow colour. An average fare is about XOF 250.

Motorcycle taxis also operate in Abidjan and, although cheap, they are best avoided due to safety concerns.

Bus

The Abidjan Transport Company (SOTRA) is the public transit provider for Abidjan, Côte d’Ivoire and its suburbs which manages transit through its bus and water bus fleet. Buses operate along fixed routes in Abidjan, but are often overcrowded and plagued by petty theft, especially at bus stations\(^\text{6}\) (XOF 500 for a one-way ride).

Wibuses offer air conditioning, Wi-Fi and security cameras, with a 32-seat maximum capacity. Six lines run through Cocody from 5.50 a.m. to 8.30 p.m. Fares vary between XOF 300 and XOF 500 depending on the distance.

‘Gbaka’ are minibuses rearranged to offer more seats. Very popular in Abidjan, the gbaka use an ‘apprentice’ (also known as ‘balanceur’ or ‘stepper’), hanging out the door of the vehicle to collect fares and pull passengers in and out as quickly as possible. Fares vary from XOF 200 to XOF 350 depending on the destination.

\(^{6}\) The main bus routes in Abidjan can be found at the following link: https://cote-d-ivoire-streets.openalfa.com/abidjan/bus-routes.
Lagoon transportation

This service is provided by the government of Côte d'Ivoire. A real response to the problem of congestion in the city of Abidjan, it serves all the lagoon-fronted municipalities in the district of Abidjan on a daily basis, contributing significantly to transport and the fluidity and mobility of the populations. Ferries link Treichville, Abobo-Doumé and Le Plateau. You may need to book a ticket with SOTRA Tourism\(^7\), especially during the weekend (one-way tickets are XOF 150). Further information on the service lines, ferry stations, timetable and costs can be found on the lagoon transportation company (STL) website\(^8\).

8. Accommodation

Participants are responsible for making their own accommodation arrangements and are encouraged to finalize their booking and payment as early as possible.

An indicative list of recommended hotels by the host country for delegates may be found in the Annex to this document. The list of hotels endorsed by the United Nations Department for Safety and Security may be found on the UNCCD COP 15 webpage.

9. Services available for participants at the session venue

Information on medical services and emergency numbers, postal, telephone, fax, photocopying and internet services, catering, cafeterias, bars, banking services, travel agencies and any other additional services available for participants will be published in the official journal of the session and on the host country COP 15 website.

10. Immigration formalities and customs regulations

Visa regulations

Foreign nationals visiting Côte d’Ivoire, must obtain a visa online (e-Visa\(^9\)) or from the diplomatic missions,\(^10\) unless they belong to the visa-exempt countries. Passports must be valid for six months.

Delegates are strongly advised to seek information on visa requirements applicable to them from Côte d’Ivoire diplomatic or consular missions in their home countries.

Foreign nationals from the following countries do not require a visa to enter Côte d’Ivoire: Benin, Burkina Faso, Cape Verde, Central African Republic (90 days), Chad (90 days), Congo (90 days), Gambia, Ghana, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Mali, Mauritania (90 days), Morocco (90 days), Niger, Nigeria, Philippines (90 days), Rwanda (90 days), Senegal, Seychelles (90 days), Sierra Leone, Singapore (90 days), Togo and Tunisia (90 days).

Standard single-entry visas valid for 90 days will be issued following an e-visa application. After registering and paying online, and if the e-visa is approved, it can be collected on arrival at Abidjan International Airport upon presentation of the confirmation e-mail. A United Nations letter of invitation to COP 15 and/or a document issued by a relevant

Covid-19 vaccination

Full vaccination is mandatory for all those attending COP 15. The safest way for COP 15 to happen in person is for those attending to be fully vaccinated, protecting themselves, the event and the community.

As COVID-19 measures are subject to frequent review and may change at short notice, travellers are also advised to check the government’s official website for updates.

Testing & Hygiene Measures

There will be strict COVID-19 testing protocols in place, including daily testing for everyone entering the Blue Zone to ensure the health and well-being of all those involved and the surrounding community.

Additional information will be included in the COVID-19 code of conduct for the COP 15 session, which will be posted in due course on the UNCCD COP 15 webpage and the COP 15 website of the host country.

Customs regulations

Information on the customs regulations in force in Côte d’Ivoire can be obtained from any Côte d’Ivoire embassy or consulate or at the following link: <http://www.douanes.ci/ >.

Any delegate who fails to comply with the customs requirements regarding entry into Côte d’Ivoire may be prevented from entering the country by the local authorities.

11. Intervention at official meetings

United Nations General Assembly resolution 76/237 on the pattern of conferences requests the Secretary-General to, inter alia, continue his efforts to ensure the highest quality of interpretation and translation services in all six official languages.

In the interests of ensuring that meetings run smoothly, participants are reminded of the need to maintain a normal speed when delivering speeches or making statements, allowing the required high-quality simultaneous interpretation services to be provided to the entire satisfaction of all participants.

Information about Abidjan

Abidjan is the economic capital of Côte d’Ivoire and one of the most populous French-speaking cities in Africa. According to the 2014 census, Abidjan’s population was 4.7 million, which is 20 per cent of the overall population of the country.

Abidjan lies on the south-east coast of the country, on the Gulf of Guinea. The city is located on the Ébrié Lagoon. Since 2001, the city has been divided into ten boroughs (communes). The business district, Le Plateau, is the centre of the city, along with Cocody, Deux Plateaux (the city’s wealthiest neighborhood and a hub for diplomats) and Adjame, a slum on the north shore of the lagoon. Treichville and Marcory lie to the south, Attecoube, Lcocodjro, Abobo Doume and Yopougon to the west, and Île Boulay is located in the middle of the lagoon. Further south lies Port Bouët, home to the Abidjan airport and the main seaport.

Abidjan is also the bridgehead of the country’s only highway linking the city to the administrative and political capital, Yamoussoukro.

Currency

The national currency in Côte d’Ivoire is the West African CFA franc (XOF).

USD 1 = approximately XOF 587

The climate is very hot here in May. The thermometer averaged maximum of 30°C. On average, the recorded minimum temperature is 28°C.

October and November can be wet months but the average rainfall for the rest of the year remains minimal. Humidity is generally high, particularly from January to June, when temperatures tend to remain constant at about 30°C (86°F).

You can use your electric appliances in Côte d’Ivoire if the standard voltage in your country is between 220–240 V (as in the UK, Europe, Australia and most of Asia and Africa). If the standard voltage in your country is in the range of 100 V–127 V (as in the US, Canada and most South American countries), you will need a voltage converter in Côte d’Ivoire. You may also consider a combined power plug adapter/voltage converter. The power plugs and sockets are type C (standard ‘Euro’ plug), and E (common in: Czech Republic, France, Belgium, Slovakia, Poland, Tunisia and Morocco).
