I. Background information

1. Article 22, paragraph 7, of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification, states: “The United Nations, its specialized agencies, and any State member thereof or observers thereto not Party to the Convention, may be represented at sessions of the Conference of the Parties as observers. Any body or agency, whether national or international, governmental or non-governmental, which is qualified in matters covered by the Convention, and which has informed the Permanent Secretariat of its wish to be represented at a session of the Conference of the Parties as an observer, may be so admitted unless at least one third of the Parties present object.” Rules 6 and 7 of the rules of procedure of the Conference of the Parties (COP), adopted by decision 1/COP.1, contain provisions to similar effect. Decision 26/COP.1 contains provisions on accrediting non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations to the first and subsequent sessions of the COP.

II. Introduction

2. Assuming that the institutions listed in Annexes I, II and III are accredited to the COP at its fifteenth session, Annex IV contains the updated list of national, international, governmental and intergovernmental organizations accredited to the COP, and Annex V contains the updated list of non-governmental organizations and civil society organizations accredited to the COP. Annex VI contains the business and industry entities already accredited to the COP.

III. Recommendation

3. In accordance with the above-mentioned provisions, the COP, at its fifteenth session, may wish to accredit as observers the intergovernmental organizations listed in Annex I, the non-governmental and civil society organizations listed in Annex II and the business and industry entities listed in Annex III.
