

ZERO TOLERANCE FOR SEXUAL EXPLOITATION AND ABUSE

Honouring our values

Protecting the People We Serve

The United Nations maintains a strict policy of zero tolerance for sexual exploitation and abuse (SEA). Every staff member, volunteer, and partner shares responsibility for upholding the dignity, safety, and rights of the communities we work with.

If you witness or experience conduct that violates this policy, you are encouraged to report it. Reports are treated confidentially, and retaliation against anyone who reports in good faith is prohibited.

Our Commitment

- Zero tolerance for inaction on reports of SEA
- Confidential, survivor-centred reporting channels
- Protection against retaliation for reporting in good faith
- Accountability for all personnel, at every level

PREVENT

Training and awareness
for all personnel

REPORT

Speak up through trusted, confidential channels

PROTECT

Support for survivors,
no retaliation

Report a Concern

Speak with your supervisor, focal point, or Ethics Office, or scan the QR code for reporting resources and guidance.

Scan to learn more

