I. Background information

1. Article 22, paragraph 7, of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification states: “The United Nations, its specialized agencies, and any State member thereof or observers thereto not Party to the Convention may be represented at sessions of the Conference of the Parties (COP) as observers. Any body or agency, whether national or international, governmental or non-governmental, which is qualified in matters covered by the Convention, and which has informed the Permanent Secretariat of its wish to be represented at a session of the COP as an observer, may be so admitted unless at least one third of the Parties present object.” Rules 6 and 7 of the rules of procedure of the COP, adopted in decision 1/COP.1, contain provisions to similar effect. Decision 26/COP.1 contains provisions on accrediting non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations to the first and subsequent sessions of the COP.

II. Introduction

2. Assuming that the institutions listed in annex I are accredited to the COP at its second extraordinary session, annex II contains the updated list of non-governmental organizations and civil society organizations accredited to the COP

III. Recommendation

3. In accordance with the provisions mentioned above, the COP, at its second extraordinary session, may wish to accredit as observers the non-governmental and civil society organizations listed in annex I.

Annex I
