I. Background information

1. Article 22, paragraph 7, of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification states: “The United Nations, its specialized agencies and any State member thereof or observers thereto not Party to the Convention, may be represented at sessions of the Conference of the Parties as observers. Any body or agency, whether national or international, governmental or non-governmental, which is qualified in matters covered by the Convention, and which has informed the Permanent Secretariat of its wish to be represented at a session of the Conference of the Parties as an observer, may be so admitted unless at least one third of the Parties present object.” Rules 6 and 7 of the rules of procedure of the Conference of the Parties (COP), adopted by decision 1/COP.1, contain provisions to similar effect. Decision 26/COP.1 contains provisions on accrediting non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations to the first and subsequent sessions of the COP.

II. Introduction

2. Assuming that the organizations listed in annexes I and II are accredited to the COP at its twelfth session, annex III and IV contain the updated list of national, international, governmental and intergovernmental organizations accredited to the COP and annex IV contains the updated list of non-governmental organizations and civil society organizations accredited to the COP. Annex V contains the business and industry entities already accredited to the Conference of the Parties.

III. Recommendation

3. In accordance with the provisions mentioned above, the COP at its twelfth session may wish to accredit as observers the intergovernmental organizations listed in annex I and the non-governmental and civil society organizations listed in annex II.

Works to stop degradation of the natural environment and to conserve the world's biological diversity. Works to ensure that renewable natural resource use is sustainable, promoting the reduction of pollution and wasteful consumption. Works with partners to develop and implement solutions to environmental challenges. Conserves representative samples of the world's outstanding places to ensure that ecologically, economically and culturally important species are restored and thriving. Addresses drivers of threats to biodiversity that contribute to the damage created by the ecological footprint.
