I. Background information

1. Article 22, paragraph 7, of the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification states: “The United Nations, its specialized agencies and any State member thereof or observers thereto not Party to the Convention, may be represented at sessions of the Conference of the Parties as observers. Any body or agency, whether national or international, governmental or non-governmental, which is qualified in matters covered by the Convention, and which has informed the Permanent Secretariat of its wish to be represented at a session of the Conference of the Parties as an observer, may be so admitted unless at least one third of the Parties present object.” Rules 6 and 7 of the rules of procedure of the Conference of the Parties (COP), adopted by decision 1/COP.1, contain provisions to similar effect. Decision 26/COP.1 contains provisions on accrediting non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations to the first and subsequent sessions of the COP.

II. Introduction

2. Assuming accreditation by the COP at its first extraordinary session of the organizations listed in annex I, annex III contains the updated list of non-governmental organizations accredited to the COP. Annex II contains the list of national, international, governmental and intergovernmental organizations accredited to the Conference of the Parties.

III. Recommendation

3. In accordance with the provisions mentioned above, the secretariat recommends that the COP at its first extraordinary session accredits as observers the non-governmental organizations listed in annex I.
