Subject: Invitation to Attend World Day to Combat Desertification and Drought at Upaban

Respected Sir,

We are delighted to extend our warm invitation to you to join us in commemorating the “World Day to Combat Desertification and Drought” on 17th June 2024. This significant event will take place at Upaban, a remarkable testament to the successful transformation of a barren land into a thriving green landscape.

The World Day to Combat Desertification and Drought serves as a global reminder of the importance of sustainable land management in combating desertification and mitigating the effects of drought. This year, we are proud to host the event at Upaban, which exemplifies the positive impact of concerted efforts and innovative approaches in reversing land degradation.

Event Details:

-Date: 17th June 2024; Time: 08:00 AM to 01:00 PM

-Venue: Upaban (Known As Sen Badi), Near Lattu Pahar, Simultala, Jhajha Block, Jamui, Bihar

The event will feature insightful discussions, Activities, presentations in sustainable land management, and a tour of Upaban to showcase the methods and practices employed in its transformation. Your presence at this event would greatly honor us and underscore the collective commitment towards combating desertification and promoting sustainable development.

We believe your expertise and experience will contribute significantly to the discourse on sustainable land management and inspire further action. We look forward to your affirmative response and to welcoming you to Upaban.

Should you have any questions or require additional information, do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for considering our invitation. Together, let us champion the cause of land restoration and ensure a sustainable future for all.

Yours sincerely,
Shivani Kumari
Director at Wild Trust
